Have a piece of Olympic history in your garden with our official replica of the Olympic Equestrian Judging Huts as used in the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Our Design Capability

At Hudson Garden Rooms we believe a 3D CAD design is the perfect way for you to visualise your garden with one of our garden rooms. All we need is a photo of your garden space.

We are very proud of our 3D design service and the impact they have when we show our customers, that's why we offer every customer a free 3D design. We can either create this from a photo you send us or following a site visit.

Unique Features

In 2011, Hudson Garden Rooms was awarded the tender to design and build unique judging huts for the equestrian events. Our design provides 120 degrees of uninterrupted curved views complete with fully sliding windows. Inside boast a integrated desk and ample storage. All of which come standard in the Olympic Pod. We also feature an Olympic approved plaque to approve each Olympic Pod as official replicas.

We were asked to design & build this unique structure which has panoramic views to the front & ample space inside.

The perfect inspiring garden office

From Sports Pavilions to Boat Houses and Stable Yards, we can build it all.
No project is too big!
